On Maysville Warehouse Floors and Conditions are Favorable For Opening

FIRST SALES AT FARMERS WAREHOUSE

The opening sales on the Maysville loose leaf tobacco market began this morning at 9 o'clock and conditions are ideal, as the weather is soft and the weeds are in fine shape for handling.

Order of Sales Today.

The Farmers warehouse had the first sale this morning at 9 o'clock.

The first crop sold was that of James Roberson of Maysville. There were 1,665 pounds in the crop and the average price paid was $9.21 per hundred.

The sales will follow at the other warehouses thus:

The Growers, the Central, the Amazon, the Home, the Planters and the Independent.

200,000 Pounds On the Floor.

There are at least 200,000 pounds of tobacco on the floors of the seven houses on sale today.

This is not as much as was on hand at last year's opening sales, but, considering conditions, it is a good showing and the average prices should be satisfactory to all parties.
